My learning style

Style

Converger

Prefer structured situations where I can apply theories and concepts to concrete problems, often excelling in fields like engineering, technology, or sciences.

Opportunity

1. Thrive in engineering, IT, data analysis, software development, and other technical environments.
2. Have the potential to excel as entrepreneurs, particularly in fields that require innovative solutions.

Strength

1. Logic and technical knowledges.
2. Actively experiment with ideas, test hypotheses, and engage in hands-on tasks.
3. Strong in areas that require problem-solving, decision-making, and the application of theories.
